the palce have been choosed for its icredible beauty. The snow was comming at the ens of the day. So we had only this day of free window before the window come. NISSAN choose his best fastest model to be compared to a buggy rollin suit. We tried to race. But the car is a real monster ! and Buggy Rollin uses only gravity.

The photographer was jean Yves's friend Thilo Brunner hos is specialised in action sport reports. Even with an enjury he could do a great job! The cameraman was the famous Danny Strasser who as usual took is time untill the very last moment in order to find the best motion picture. Here are the pictures.
